Chapter 1 by Parkour_Ninja

The couple was sitting quietly, gazing into each others eyes. The boy noticed a spot on her glasses, so he gently removed them and cleaned them with his T-shirt. She smiled warmly at this kind gesture. He placed them back on her beautiful face and returned to holding her smooth hands. He leaned in and interrupted her by saying something so heart warming, she nearly melted where she sat. "I'm sorry I couldn't hear what you said, I just got lost in your eyes." She met him half way and their lips caressed each other, he tasted the sweet love of cherry and knew she was the one.

Chapter 2 by Capri Scious

But as romances often do, this one didn't last. After the summer ended, the two inseparable love birds were forced to separate.

Years and years flew by, the lovers slowly forgetting one another, moving on with their busy lives.

The girl became a surgeon. and lives depended on her hands.

The boy became a doctor. and lives depended on his hands. He would be able to look his partner in the eye again.
